Dear Mr. President:

During the nationally broadcast "Ask The President" program, I heard you mention that you had discussed the unfortunate situation of Raoul Wallenberg with Soviet President Brezhnev.

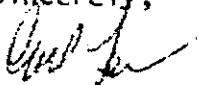

As you may remember, before the Vienna summit, I wrote you to ask that you "inquire about this situation during your meetings."

In response to my letter to you, Assistant Secretary of State Douglas Bennet, Jr. did not tell me that you brought up this matter in your discussions. I would like to ask that you provide me with as much information about the actual discussions as is available.

My interest in the case continues to grow as I learn of more information showing that Mr. Wallenberg may have been seen alive as recently as 1975, and that he may still be alive in a Soviet prison.

I was pleased to hear you discuss the Wallenberg situation with the compassion you expressed. I am encouraged by your continued interest in his safety.

Sincerely,

Carl Levin
